PATRICIAN

Shoe for Women

The Shoe That Expresses the Highest Ideals in Feminine Footwear

EVERY woman of refinement and taste has her ideals on the subject of dress. She longs for "real lace," Parisian gowns and French hats—because these things convey to her mind an unmistakable picture of exclusive elegance. To the discriminating woman the Patrician Shoe means, in footwear, what a French hat means in millinery. It is the shoe for the woman who wants more than just "plain, ordinary every-day style"—the shoe of surpassing beauty and daintiness—the one shoe at its price that fully satisfies the feminine craving for footwear of pronounced and exclusive elegance.

Get Rid of Stomach Distress

Eat a Square Meal When You Want it and Take Two Mi-o-na Stomach
Tablets to Make Rest Comfortable.

What's the use of always feeling miserable just because your stomach isn't behaving itself?
Don't you know that scores of thousands of people have changed their bad disordered stomachs into perfect working ones by the simple method of swallowing one or two little MI-O-NA stomach tablets after each meal?

MI-O-NA is compounded from the formula of what is probably the best prescription for indigestion and upset stomach ever written. Tragle Drug Co. guarantees it.
It relieves distress in five minutes, but better still it removes the cause of misery in a few days.
Large box 50 cents at Tragle Drug Co.'s and druggists everywhere.
Free trial treatment and booklet from Booth's Mi-o-na, Buffalo, N. Y., who also fill mail orders on receipt of price.

The Up-to-Date Club met with Mrs. W. H. Branson on Thursday at her home on Queen Street. The meeting began with a luncheon at 1 o'clock. The table had as its centerpiece a lovely arrangement of white hyacinths and shadowy ferns. Silver candlesticks held white tapers, glowing through green shades. Green and white bonbons and glass fruits filled pretty dishes about the table, with here and there a dainty suggestion of St. Patrick's Day. The literary program followed the luncheon. Especially interesting were the current events that were given at roll call. In the absence of Mrs. E. J. Parrish, Mrs. A. G. Carr, president of the club, read her very interesting paper on "The Daughter of the Empress," after which Mrs. Branson read a most charming article on the "Old Fashioned Gentry," and thus closed one of the most delightful meetings of the club. Those present were Mrs. Mattie Southgate Jones, Mrs. A. G. Carr, Mrs. Julian S. Carr, Mrs. S. A. Venable, Mrs. Gilbert White, Miss Mary Hanes, Mrs. Geo. W. Watson, Mrs. J. W. White, of Richmond, Va.
A pretty affair of Friday afternoon was the birthday party at which Miss Tucker, on Mangum Street. The entire lower floor was thrown open to the little folks and the rooms were adorned with graceful ferns and handsome palms. After the rousing games which all enjoyed, a dainty repast was served in the dining-room, which was very attractive with a color scheme of pink and white. In the center of the table was a cluster of seven candles burning pink tapers, with miniature fields at either end, enclosed in a rustic fence of stick candy. In one inclosure was a brood of realistic looking chickens, while bunnies had possession of the other. Little pink baskets filled with candy eggs surrounded by fluffy little chicks were the favors.
The As-We-Like-It Club had a very delightful meeting with Miss Nannie

Get Wright on Saturday afternoon.
Miss Caroline Fuller, of New York, who has been the guest of Miss Mary Duke for several days, has returned to Pinchurst, where she is spending several weeks.
Mrs. B. N. Duke and Mrs. E. J. Parrish have returned from Charleston, S. C., where they were members of a house party, at which Mrs. Sam Morgan, of Richmond, entertained at her winter lodge.
Mrs. Jennie Goode Watkins has issued invitations to the marriage of her daughter, Annie, and Oscar Jefferson Carlton, to take place on Wednesday, March 29, at her home in this city.
